

Rance G. Duke

TriHealth Board of Trustees

Pleased to join the TriHealth Board of Trustees, Rance looks forward to contributing after benefitting in over 40 years from employment, board opportunities, and many established relationships in the Greater Cincinnati area. He feels positioned to contribute towards positive improvements in the health care sector.

Mr. Duke has over 37 years of treasury and investment experience working at the Western & Southern Financial Group, over 16 years tenure on the Board of Trustees for Bethesda Foundation Inc. and the Board of Trustees For Bethesda, Inc.

Rance retired in 2015 from the Western & Southern Financial Group, where he started as a supervisor in the Treasury Department and rose to Vice President, Head of Investment Grade Credit at its subsidiary Fort Washington Investment Advisors, Inc. He continues with over 16 years tenure on the Board of Trustees for Spring Grove Cemetery and Arboretum, having served several leadership posts including treasurer and chairman. He serves on the Board of Trustees for the Bethesda Foundation, Inc where currently he is treasurer. On the Board of Trustees for Bethesda Inc., he chairs the Investment Committee. Since 2014 he has been serving on the Board of Trustees for the Cincinnati Art Museum. There he is a member of the Executive Committee, is currently chairing the CAM Investment Committee, and previously chaired the Buildings and Grounds Committee. Recently Rance was appointed to, and now serves on, the Board of Trustees for the Greater Cincinnati Port Authority.

He started his community service on the Community Advisory Board for Hospice of Cincinnati and thereafter on the YMCA Board of Trustees. He gained recognition as Vice Chair of the United Way and Community Chest Board of Directors. Later, he was in the first class of the African American Leadership Development Program of the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati.
