Biannual News from Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation • Spring 2014

A family of givers

Dear Foundation Family:

Every issue of Compassionate Giving keeps you updated on the news and good work of our Foundation Family. This Spring issue is no exception. We've packed it with plenty of photos and stories, including those taken at February's Gala hosted by The Good Samaritans. As usual, the Gala was so much fun, but only after months of behind-the-scenes planning and hard work. We are grateful to all of you photographed here, and to the hundreds of others that made the evening so much fun for such great causes.

Turn the pages of this issue and you'll see – we are a generous group that likes to have a good time! We also are a family of givers, ready to give our time, money and energy to fuel the mission of Good Samaritan Hospital.

Beginning on page 11 you'll find the names of dozens of extra-special family members – individuals, corporations, foundations and organizations – who have demonstrated a habit of exceptional generosity. These Lifetime Giving Society members have each, to date, donated $10,000 or more to ensure our patients receive quality, compassionate care. Some have donated more than $1 million. I have a feeling this kindness will continue – generosity is a deeply engrained habit!

To every member of the Foundation family, you have my heartfelt thanks. It is a privilege to be counted among you.

PHYLLIS ADAMS

LEON LOEWENSTINE

JODI LOWER MAHON

DAN NEYER

CAROL A. TAGGERT

PHYLLIS ADAMS is no stranger to Good Sam. Not only did she deliver both daughters here, “because of the reputation of the neonatal unit,” in 2009 she helped establish Good Sam’s office of the Healthnetwork Foundation in partnership with other local and national hospitals. Her vast experience in technology as the now-retired founder and CEO of Professional Data Resources, Inc. led Good Sam leadership to ask Phyllis to assist a South African charity with a patient tracking system. Impressed with Good Sam’s “collaborative culture and commitment to health care regionally, nationally and internationally,” Phyllis looks forward to contributing as a Board member “in any way I can.”

LEON LOEWENSTINE has been managing investment assets for non-profits for more than 30 years and has served on many non-profit Boards. Since 2002 he has worked for RiverPoint Capital Management and currently is their Managing Director and Chief Investment Strategist. Cincinnati Magazine routinely names Leon a Five-Star Wealth Manager. He is eager to help make a difference on the Board and the Finance Committee. “My father was a patient at Good Sam last year and I was able to witness firsthand the outstanding care the physicians and staff provided. I hope my involvement will make a small difference in someone else’s life.”

JODI LOWER MAHON has vast business experience in the U.S. and abroad. She held important positions at Andersen Consulting (now Accenture) and Kraft General Foods before joining General Cable Corporation where, as vice president, she focused on General Cable’s business development in the U.S. and Europe. Throughout her career she has learned “that diverse perspectives in a collaborative form can generate awesome ideas – and advances,” and is eager to help introduce new ideas as a member of the Foundation Board. Her consulting company JLM Diversified helps small businesses with recruiting, performance appraisals and organizational design.

A “Good Sam baby,” DAN NEYER is President and CEO of Neyer Properties and other real estate companies that provide land development, acquisition investment, construction, design financing, leasing and property management. As a lifelong Cincinnati, he says “being part of the board is a way to give back to the community where I was raised and have received significant blessings.” Having been touched closely by cancer – wife Kris and daughter Amanda both are cancer survivors – Dan hopes to contribute to the Foundation “by helping out where I can from a leadership and financial standpoint.”

A busy trial attorney for 30-plus years, CANDI TAGGART is Partner at Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP, and is eager to serve as a Board Member for the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation. “Being on the board gives me an opportunity to encourage others to support Good Sam’s cancer care services,” she says, a special passion that stems from the death of her son Andy Cares to melanoma at age 24. “I’m excited about the development of Good Sam’s new Cancer Institute with its focus on compassionate care.” Candi also is an enthusiastic advocate for accessible health care for people of limited financial means. “I look forward to inviting others in the community to support Good Sam’s Free Health Center.”

ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

“for life, good health, and the reassurance that things would be OK”

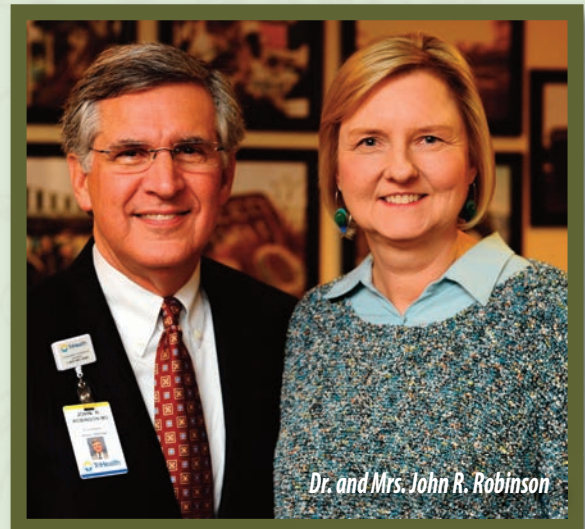

As TriHealth's Senior Vice President of Hospital Operations, John R. Robinson MD has always been aware of the quality, compassionate care that Good Sam provides patients. But after a serious cancer scare in 2008, he and his wife Sue experienced Good Samaritan from the other side of the bed, and "I saw from a personal place all that this hospital provides our patients," John says. Throughout his cancer journey, and during treatment that other family members have received at Good Sam over the years, the pair have come to love Good Samaritan and TriHealth not just as an employer but, as John describes, "a place that has provided life, good health, and the reassurance that things would be OK in spite of our fears."

Their shared experiences have placed them in hospital units, and among staff, on nearly every floor of the campus. They quickly can list more than a dozen areas in which they've spent time as patients, or family members of patients, over the last decade. From the Operating Room to the ICU to the Chapel, their experiences have only deepened their appreciation for a place that has delivered physical, emotional and spiritual care. "Our children will never forget how well they were treated and supported while visiting here," they believe.

Before John reached the five-year milestone as a cancer survivor last Fall, Sue says they both worried whether he would ever see their first grandchild born, or walk his daughter down the aisle. Today John is thrilled to have experienced both; their second grandson arrived in January and their older daughter was married last December. "From a gratitude standpoint I don't know how to be more grateful," Sue says of the Endowment they've established with the Foundation. In addition, the couple has earmarked a portion of their estate to the Foundation.

Yet they realize that not everyone is as fortunate. That's why the Robinsons also routinely donate to Good Sam's Cancer Care Fund, which supports needy cancer patients with money for cab fare, bus tokens, and other hardships. "Being treated for cancer can make you so sick," Sue remembers of John's experience. "To have to worry about paying for a cab to the hospital, or how to pay your utility bills at a time like that. . . it's just so sad what some people go through."

John says he has learned, "You can make a difference with any amount of money," adding that, "The people who are most inspiring to me are those who don't have a whole lot, but give what they can." During his cancer journey John was especially touched by friends who showed their gratitude to the hospital staff by making donations. "It was so special to me that people wanted to give back in little or big ways by making a donation to the Foundation."

Dr. and Mrs. John R. Robinson

If you'd like to express your gratitude with a donation to the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation, please contact Kelly Rowland, Director of development at 513-862-3787 or kelly_rowland@trihealth.com.

Nationally recognized for excellence, at TriHealth and Good Samaritan Hospital we believe it's our responsibility to do what's good for our community – to provide excellent care, health and wellness.

As the hospital's philanthropic arm, the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation is charged with raising the funds to carry out this responsibility. To crystalize our plans, the Foundation staff has developed a Community Care Initiative. It establishes these philanthropic priorities through 2015:

INNOVATION
COMPASSIONATE CARE
MINISTRY
COMPREHENSIVE CARE

In this issue of Compassionate Giving, we focus on our responsibility to provide Comprehensive Care to the 1,200+ cancer patients who seek treatment at Good Samaritan each year. And we ask you, our generous readers, to share this responsibility through your support.

OUR CANCER EXPERTS HAVE A DREAM

TriHealth diagnoses more cancers than any other health system in Greater Cincinnati. Providing these patients with the best care available – physically and emotionally – is the dream of our cancer experts. The new Good Samaritan Hospital Cancer Center will offer patients:

- A fast and accurate diagnosis and plan of treatment
- A patient advocate to guide each patient and family through their journey
- A comfortable treatment center – all on one floor of the hospital – with private rooms that are big enough for family
- The most technologically advanced treatment available
- Access to all available research – TriHealth and Good Samaritan Hospital contributes more patients to cancer research than any other health system in the region
- A social worker, dietitian and genetic counselor

Jose Barreau, MD
Physician Executive
TriHealth Cancer Institute

"EVERY CANCER PATIENT DESERVES TO BE THE CENTER OF ATTENTION AND SURROUNDED BY A TEAM OF EXPERTS."

THE NEW CANCER CENTER IS SCHEDULED TO OPEN IN MAY OF 2014.

YOU CAN EASE THE CANCER JOURNEY AND IMPROVE OUTCOMES

With significant donor support, we know this dream of a comprehensive journey to cancer survival can be a reality for the thousands of people in our community who will learn they have cancer this year. You can ease their cancer journey by making a donation to the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation (see below). Naming opportunities are available for our most generous donors.

Your donation will help realize the dream of TriHealth cancer experts – to provide each cancer patient with the best care available. To donate or for more information, call Kelly Rowland at 513-862-3787 or kelly_rowland@trihealth.com

Let's Roll Dice and Stir Things Up!

EVENT STIRS UP MORE THAN $531,000 TO SUPPORT BREAST CANCER – AN ALL TIME RECORD!

The Good Samaritans' 30th Annual Gala – After Thirty Years...Let's Roll Dice and Stir Things Up! – raised more than $531,000 to benefit the development of a comprehensive Breast Cancer Program at Good Samaritan Hospital and an annual donation to the Medical Education Research Fund. This amount is an all time record for this annual fundraising event.

More than 760 supporters of Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation gathered at the Horseshoe Casino, Cincinnati, in the Pavilion Ballroom, where guests were treated to a cocktail reception followed by a gourmet dinner. After dinner, guests danced the night away to the music of Jayne Bond and the Pink Martinis. The event was an explosion of pink with flashing necklaces and rings, blinking noodle hair, princess wands and beads, giant martini glass centerpieces, circus performers, balloon hats, green screen photography and a martini bar.

Good Samaritan Hospital Medical and Dental staff generously underwrote the Entertainment and Room Décor, Mrs. Claire B. Phillips underwrote the Dinner Entrée and Hatton Foundation underwrote the Cocktail Hour. Other corporate sponsors included: AK Steel Corporation, Fifth Third Bank, Group Health, Macy's, Phillips Supply Co., SC Ministry Foundation, Sisters of Charity, and TriHealth, Inc. These substantial underwriting and sponsorship donations had a considerable impact on the fundraising efforts for this annual event.

The Good Samaritans is a dedicated volunteer organization of Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation and includes members with ties to the medical and business community. The Good Samaritans have raised more than $6 million in their history. This year's Gala Chairman was Pamela Rossmann and her Co-Chairman was Patty Bassano. They worked diligently with other Gala committee volunteers and with physician champion Jose Barreau, MD.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL FOUNDATION EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN

Rather than choosing a project and conducting another campaign for the sake of having a campaign, this year we created something that could be ongoing/more meaningful. Something that truly has purpose and creates impact... thus I AM Good Sam was born.

I AM Good Sam is about sustaining a legacy handed down to us more than 160 years ago. It is about employees truly understanding and believing in our roles and responsibilities as Good Sam employees. It is our legacy of serving the community, the poor, our patients and their families as well as each other. "I AM Good Sam" is the conduit or avenue that allows employees to actively do something by aligning their values with the area they choose to support.

Employee donations will help to improve the quality of patient care in the area of choice or boost a member of our Good Samaritan family who needs a helping hand.

For more information about I AM Good Sam or to donate, contact Kelly Rowland at 513-862-3787 or kelly_rowland@trihealth.com.

*Offering a hand to hold...giving a reassuring smile...
going an extra step...sharing an encouraging word.*

SIMPLE GESTURES OF KINDNESS OFTEN MEAN THE MOST TO US.

Through the Spirit of Compassion program at Good Samaritan Hospital, patients and /or family members can make a donation in honor of a physician, nurse, or staff member who has made a difference and share a brief note of thanks. The Foundation will deliver the note and recognize the caregiver with a Spirit of Compassion gift. The money is used to make improvements that will ensure quality, compassionate care in the future.

For more information about the Spirit of Compassion program or how to honor a healthcare worker, please call Sister Lynn Heper, SC at 513-862-1356.

*Compassion is shown in many ways.
These are just a few of the wonderful tributes that we have received:*

"Every member of the Staff is unforgettable in the way in which they ministered to me with skill, kindness and compassion."

"My husband's nurse understood the true value of Nursing which brings compassion and human comfort to what is often a mechanical environment."

*"I am glad you are there for me.
I love this Hospital!"*
