Biannual News from Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation • WINTER 2012

dear foundation family

welcome to the first issue of Compassionate Giving, a new quarterly magazine published by the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation. Each issue will feature news about important Foundation events, like the Gala and Women of Compassion. Compassionate Giving also will recognize our generous givers who help to improve and save the lives of our patients through their stewardship.

In short, Compassionate Giving is our family publication. It will keep you and every donor of the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation family abreast of the latest family news, and the good work that takes place here.

Compassion magazine, which you previously received, has been replaced with TriHealth Unity which will share news of the entire TriHealth system, including Bethesda North and Good Samaritan hospitals, and the dozens of other health care locations that TriHealth operates. You will receive TriHealth Unity quarterly.

We are so pleased to include you among our Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation family. We hope you find this first issue, and every issue of Compassionate Giving to be informative, fun to read, and a welcome addition to your mailbox bi-annually.

Be assured. Although Compassionate Giving represents a change in how we communicate, our mission is still the same: To secure and steward philanthropic gifts which will ensure compassionate care that will last a lifetime. Thank you for the role you play in carrying out this mission.

Sincerely,

*Ensuring Compassionate Care
That Will Last A Lifetime*

| Event raises more than half a million dollars – an all time record!

*Tim Cappel, Cyndi Cappel, Gala Co-Chairman;
Renita Homan, Gala Chairman and Rich Homan*

The Good Samaritans' 28th Annual Gala – Groovy Blast from the Past - raised more than $503,000 to benefit Good Samaritan Free Health Center of Price Hill and the Medical Education Research Fund. This amount is an all time record for this annual fundraising event.

Nearly 700 supporters of Good Samaritans Foundation gathered at the Hyatt Regency Cincinnati, where guests were treated to a cocktail reception followed by a gourmet dinner. After dinner in the Regency Ballroom, guests danced the night away to the sounds of the 60s and 70s. The event was an explosion of light with flashing necklaces and rings, wigs, mirror ball centerpieces, groovy dancers, Andy Warhol style photos, "faux" tie-dye T-shirts and a vintage bar featuring the famous Sloe Gin Fizz, Tequila Sunrise and Whiskey Sours.

Good Samaritan Hospital Medical and Dental staff generously underwrote the Entertainment and Room Décor and PNC underwrote the Dinner Entrée. In addition to being corporate sponsors, AK Steel Corporation and Turner Construction Company underwrote the Hors d'oeuvres and Salad and Dessert Courses. Other corporate sponsors included: Fifth Third Bank, Group Health, Hatton Foundation, Macy's, Phillips Supply Co., SC Ministry Foundation, Sisters of Charity, and TriHealth, Inc. These substantial underwriting and sponsorships donations had a considerable impact on the fundraising efforts for this annual event.

The Good Samaritans is a dedicated volunteer organization of Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation and includes members with ties to the medical and business community. The Good Samaritans have raised more than $5.2 million in their history. This year's Gala Chairman was Renita Homan and her Co-Chairman was Cyndi Cappel. They worked diligently with other Gala committee volunteers and with physician champion Marc A. Alexander, MD.

THE GOOD SAMARITANS WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL LISTED FOR THEIR SUPPORT OF THE 2012 GALA.

Minimally Invasive Training Center set to open

By Chris Klein

Generosity can have an enormous impact on the lives of others. Good Samaritan's new Minimally Invasive Training Center is proof. Because of the generosity of many, this world-class center, set to open this fall, is expected to have an immediate and long-lasting impact on patient care.

Located within the hospital, the three-suite Center will be home to important, groundbreaking medical research, under the direction of the Hatton Research Institute. Here, Good Samaritan's staff physicians and surgeons, as well as the hospital's teaching faculty and residents, will find the tools they need to pursue a wide scope of research. Their findings have the potential to improve patient care not only within Good Samaritan Hospital, but well beyond.

The new Center also will be a place where Good Samaritan's medical experts will develop and refine their minimally invasive surgical skills using state-of-the-art equipment. They will learn to replace full, open surgery with procedures that use small incisions to minimize patients' blood loss and pain, and promote more rapid healing.

"Good Samaritan has always attracted top-notch physicians and surgeons," says Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation President and Chief Executive Officer Mary Rafferty. "The Minimally Invasive Training Center will be a place where these experts can develop new surgical techniques, refine existing techniques, and test new surgical devices. Our patients will be the ultimate beneficiaries."

"We want Good Samaritan to be a place where patients can find the very best care available," says Rafferty. "We think the Minimally Invasive Training Center will help to make that happen."

The Center's completion is due to the generosity of dozens of donors, including philanthropist Claire Phillips. "Mrs. Phillips continues to change lives through her generous gifts to the hospital," says Rafferty. "We are so grateful for her support."

A LIFETIME of GOOD SAM MEMORIES

By Chris Klein

Some memories are so sweet they bring tears to the eyes. Rita Bramkamp has plenty of such memories, many centered at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Rita's Good Sam experiences began in 1954 when she left her parents and 11 siblings in Holton, Indiana to attend the Good Samaritan School of Nursing. "Talk about a fish out of water!" says Rita. "My high school graduated 14 students; most of my nursing school classmates came from huge schools." Yet more than 50 years later, she looks back on the experience as the start of a wonderful journey.

"I met so many great girls," she sniffs. "We still have lunch every month or so." Rita's closest friends lived in Good Sam's dormitory for out-of-town students. She laughs remembering the alligator that lived in the bathtub for a short time. "The housemother never found out!" A duck from Burnet Woods also spent time in the dorm. "I was not the instigator," Rita insists. Remembering the comradeship among students brings tears to her eyes. "It was such a treasure," she says.

In addition to lifelong friends, Rita gained a knowledge of nursing that would last a lifetime. After graduation she was recruited to work at Cincinnati's Longview Hospital, working first in research, then in Longview's operating room. For 20 years she assisted during routine surgeries on many of the hospital's 3,200 residents, including gallbladders, urology, gynecology, labor and delivery. "I loved it. I couldn't wait to get to work every day."

At age 41 Rita married Edward G. Bramkamp and transferred to Holmes Hospital where she worked part-time for 12 years. When Rita retired, word traveled fast and the volunteer requests began pouring in. Happy to oblige, Rita's career as a volunteer continues today. She especially enjoys volunteering at Good Sam with some of her nursing school upper classmates, and some of her closest friends. During their every-Friday craft-making sessions Rita says "sometimes we laugh so hard that people stick their head in the door to find out what is going on!" Her volunteer roles have included Special Projects Chair for The Guild, helping to organize the hospital's annual Fat Tuesday ice cream social, creating Easter favors for patients, and working tirelessly on the annual craft show.

When her husband died, Rita endowed the Edward G. Bramkamp and Rita Ross Bramkamp scholarship, awarded each year to a student of the Good Samaritan College of Nursing and Health Sciences. "What a great way to honor my late husband while also helping a student at my beloved alma mater," she says fondly.

Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation Board of Trustees Recent Members

The Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation is both pleased and honored to welcome the following individuals to the foundation board:

Jane T. Birkhead CPCU is Executive Vice President and Partner of Hukill Hazlett Harrington Agency Inc., an insurance agency serving corporate clients and employees. Jane is a graduate of Indiana University. She became active with the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation in 1998 when she co-chaired The Good Samaritan's Gala. "Over the years, I watched the hospital transform into the best in the world for babies, and robotics," she says. "Good Sam has always been a magical place of compassion, true compassion, obvious every time I walk into the hospital, to a meeting, to the foundation office, or to visit someone."

David Burleigh, JD is a shareholder at Buechner Haffer Meyers and Koenig Co., LPA a law firm specializing in the needs of the business owner and his or her family. David handles succession and strategic planning issues for families and businesses. He is a graduate of DePauw, the University of Dallas, and the University of Cincinnati College of Law. "Health care is in so much flux that we need to rally about the best health care organizations," he says. "Good Sam is among the best. If, by my volunteering, I can help Good Sam to be there for other people in Greater Cincinnati, then I'm happy to do it." Each of David's four children are Good Sam babies.

Donna de Graaf, AAMS, CISP is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati and Senior Vice President and Team Director at PNC Wealth Management. In this role she is responsible for the delivery of advisory services to affluent clients and leads a team of specialists in financial planning, investment management and banking services, including a team focused on the health care industry. "Health care is critically important to the success and vitality of our Cincinnati region," she believes. "Good Sam sets the standard for superior care in a compassionate setting. They are a rock in the ever-changing, and increasingly complex system of health care. We have a responsibility to be good stewards of our valued resources."

Dan Fales CPA, JD is shareholder and Tax Department Chair at Clark Shaefer Hackett. His decision to join the Good Samaritan Foundation Board was an easy one. "Having had the unfortunate pleasure of needing Good Sam's services, it was amazing how well I was treated and taken care of!" It was an easy decision to give back to such a great organization, he says. He is eager to see Good Sam not only maintain the excellence that already exists, but to be part of making Good Sam better - "if that is possible!" he adds.

Sister Barbara Hagedorn, SC is currently on sabbatical after serving as president of the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati for eight years. She has extensive experience working in health care, and is a graduate of the College of Mount St. Joseph and the University of Dayton. A Good Sam baby, she accepted the invitation to serve on the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation Board because “I see my participation as a way to continue the legacy and mission of the Sisters of Charity who founded Good Sam and sponsored it for many years.” She adds, “I am familiar with the Foundation’s exceptional work, so being part of that is important to me.”

Joann Lohr MD is a vascular surgeon and Director of Good Samaritan’s John J. Cranley Vascular Laboratory. A hospital staff member since 1992, she is also the associate program director for the hospital’s vascular surgery residency. After earning her medical degree, she served two Internal Medicine residencies, a General Surgery residency, and a Vascular Surgery residency. “Good Samaritan is like family to me,” says Dr. Lohr. She sees the Foundation as continuing the work of prior leaders, “especially Sister Myra James Bradley, who would be extremely proud of our Price Hill Clinic initiative.” She adds, “I want to see high quality medical care and the training of young physicians continue in the future.”

Mike Michael is president and CEO of Fifth Third Bank (Greater Cincinnati). He is a graduate of Stanford University and UCLA. He has spent the majority of his career in financial services. Of his decision to serve on the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation Board, he says, “Quality health care is vital to our region, and Good Sam is a valuable community asset. I’m happy to help in any way that I can.” He holds Good Samaritan “in the highest regard for its ethics and its quality,” he says, and is eager to help the mission “wherever I am needed.”

Pamela Sibcy is a lifelong resident of Cincinnati, and a University of Cincinnati graduate. She is vice president of Marketing for Sibcy Cline Realtors, whose generosity has helped Good Sam become a leader worldwide in robotic-assisted surgery. “Serving on the board gives me the opportunity to be part of an organization that positively affects health care, health education, and promotes wellness to our community,” she says. “This is very important to me.” Good Sam holds a special place in Pam’s heart. “Over ten years ago my husband, Rob, had open heart surgery at Good Samaritan. I will be forever grateful to the outstanding care given to him by his doctors and the nursing staff.”

The Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation Women of Compassion program celebrates women who have touched our lives in special ways. Perhaps you experienced kindness, understanding or love from an important woman in your life. Perhaps she is your mother, daughter, or sister; maybe a teacher or co-worker. . . someone who helped you become the person you are today.

In honor of the extraordinary women from our past and those present in our lives today, you can nominate a special woman in your life as a Woman of Compassion with a minimum gift of $1,000 to the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation. Your gift may be given in memory or honor of your nominee.

Your gift may be designated to support the Greatest Needs of the Hospital, the College of Nursing and Health Science or the program that is most important to you and your nominee. All of our Women of Compassion will be recognized at a special luncheon held in their honor. This year's program will be held on Friday, May 4, 2012 at the Queen City Club. Donors will have the opportunity to write a special tribute about their honoree that will be read at the luncheon and included in the program. Sheree Paoello, co-anchor for WLWT-Channel 5, will serve once again as the emcee for this event.
