

Anna Gates MS, CCC-SLP, currently works as an acute care speech-language pathologist (SLP) at Bethesda North Hospital and Kettering Health in Hamilton, Ohio. She has been a SLP for seven years and has a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Centre College (Danville, KY) and a master's degree in speech-language pathology from Salus University (Philadelphia, PA). Anna has experience in working in a level I trauma center, inpatient rehabilitation, and nursing home facilities. Anna is passionate about swallowing disorders and has a vested interest in MBS and FEES.