

Division Chief Mooney's fire service journey started in 1988 in Lee, Massachusetts as a volunteer firefighter and EMT. He moved to Cincinnati in 1990 to attend the University of Cincinnati's paramedic program. Shortly after graduation, he began his career with Green Township Fire & EMS. He's served in his current role since 2016. "Being the EMS Division Chief has truly allowed me to influence the success of our providers in delivering the best possible care while fostering our department values of Compassion, Professionalism, Respect and Integrity".

Division Chief Mooney lives in Harrison, Ohio with his wife Gwen, dogs Beau and Moose, and cat Boone. He is the proud father of Dustin, Gabrielle, and Dalton, and the grandfather of Ella, Emmalyn, Elise, and soon to be Ruth. In his free time, he enjoys cooking with his wife, vacationing on the beach, and spending winters snowmobiling in Vermont.
