

Mohamad Rahwan, MD

Dr. Mohamad Rahwan is an epilepsy neurologist who earned his medical degree from the University of Aleppo, in Syria. Passionate about advanced education in the field of neurology, he moved to the United States where he did a post-doctoral fellowship in EEG and Epilepsy at Case Western Reserve University (University Hospitals) in Cleveland, OH. After that he moved to Charleston, South Carolina and completed four years of Neurology residency, followed by two years subspecialty fellowships in Epilepsy and Clinical Neurophysiology at the Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC). In 2021, Dr. Rahwan moved back to Ohio and joined TriHealth aiming at providing excellent care for patients in this community.

Areas of focus: Epilepsy, seizure like activities including syncope and psychogenic non-epileptic events, EEG/ ICU EEG, neuromodulation therapy and cognitive disorders.

In his leisure time, Dr. Rahwan loves to spend time with his wife and two young children. He enjoys gardening, photography, and watching soccer.

Dr. Rahwan has three board certifications from the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology: in Neurology, Epilepsy and Clinical Neurophysiology.