

Dr. Andrew Ringer is a neurosurgeon with Mayfield Brain & Spine who treats a wide range of cerebrovascular diseases. He has expertise in the treatment of brain aneurysms, arteriovenous malformations, carotid stenosis and stroke.

Dr. Ringer earned his medical degree at University of Illinois. He completed a residency in neurosurgery with Mayfield and the University of Cincinnati. He then completed a fellowship in endovascular surgery at University at Buffalo.

He joined Mayfield Brain & Spine in 2001 and became Chairman of the Board in 2019. He also serves as Chief of Neurosciences at TriHealth and Director of Neurosurgery at Good Samaritan Hospital.