

Ryan Tackla, MD, is a neurosurgeon with Mayfield Brain & Spine who treats a wide range of cerebrovascular diseases. He has expertise in the treatment of brain aneurysms, arteriovenous malformations, carotid stenosis, and stroke.

Dr. Tackla earned his medical degree at University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. He completed a residency in neurosurgery with the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. He then completed a fellowship in cerebrovascular and endovascular surgery at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine.

He joined Mayfield Brain & Spine in 2020 and treats patient at Good Samaritan Hospital, The Jewish Hospital – Mercy Health, Bethesda North Hospital, St. Elizabeth Healthcare, and the Mayfield Spine Surgery Center.