

Josh Ingham, BSN, RN

Josh has been in the healthcare field for over 40 years, initially as an EMT for his community fire department in Maine, then, after adding law enforcement training, he worked as a Public Safety Officer in New Hampshire for several years. He moved to Cincinnati in the mid-1990's, and by 2000 had graduated nursing school. He's worked as an RN in many critical care arenas, including the emergency department, flight nursing, cardiac cath lab, and interventional radiology. He has been with TriHealth for over 20 years and has been working with the Trihealth Stroke Team for the past 4 years.

Outside of nursing, Josh is a certified US Soccer Referee and Referee Mentor. He officiates all levels from youth competitive through college and semi-professional soccer.
