

Christina Schiel, PT, DPT

Christina Schiel, PT, DPT earned her Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2008. She began her career at a Level I Trauma Center in Indianapolis, where she specialized in neuro–critical care and organ transplant rehabilitation. During this time, Christina also served as an adjunct faculty member and guest lecturer for the University of Indianapolis DPT and PTA programs, teaching cardiopulmonary and acute care physical therapy.

Christina brings broad clinical experience spanning critical care, inpatient rehabilitation, neuro outpatient care, and program development. She joined TriHealth Good Samaritan Hospital in 2018, where she has worked in both inpatient and outpatient settings. She currently serves as a Senior Acute Care Therapist and teaches an ICU rehabilitation elective in the Mount St. Joseph University DPT program..